

First name:

Last name:

Group:

Questions:

②

1- Give an example of an internship in the field of biology and the necessary tools Forest, National Parks, medical analysis laboratory... we need: Note Book, pen, camera, GPS and a Material.
specific is the study module

③

2- What is the difference between the 3 types of field notes produced during an internship?

The first type is the field notes taken close to and within sight of the subject brief and concise. The second type are involves close following them immediately. The third one is for describing where to find a practical case.

④

3- What information can be found in the development of an internship report?

* the problem of your internship. The missions carried out in detail
* what are the difficulties encountered + the progress you achieved on the skills you have acquired -
* Apart on the company and the sector of activity (with history)
* the results obtained and the consequences of your mission
* Analyse your experience + discuss the challenges you encountered during your experience

* Acknowledgements From the internship report

9

4- Give 4 tips and instructions before writing an internship report :

→ Define the objectives of your doctorate study

→ record observations and study analysis → Take notes of your observations

→ make the detailed plan on how to achieve the set goals

→ include photographic evidence of observed phenomena. ~~validate~~

5

5- What is the basis for choosing a research topic ?

→ achievable & choose the subject that seems the most affordable

→ Achievable & select a subject where accurate documentation is easier

→ Relevant & Highlight the courses you are taking and your professional ambitions

→ Acceptable & validate the writing subject by your establishment

→ inspiring & choosing subject that inspires you

6

6- List the steps in writing a thesis (briefly):

1) Define a research topic that motivates you 2) choose an available and encouraging dissertation supervisor 3) Formulate your problems and the limits of your subject 4) Build a Detailed plan 5) First Relevant information

6) Write and Structure your dissertation 7) Record and adjust your thesis 8) Prepare the oral presentation

7

7- What are the difficulties found when producing a thesis ?

→ lack of data or reasons bibliographic

→ we cannot do the practical part... (lack of equipment, very expensive, the study area is not accessible...)

→ problems with the partner work or the supervisor

→ Time is insufficient

GOOD LUCK